My family members been having minor ailments, it did not affect the quality of life. Then two years ago, my husband has been troubled with this trigeminal nerve headache, all day long his face looks sad, unable to work, felt as if it is the end of the world, the doctors could not help. In addition, my son suffers from sinusitis, sleeps poorly, not breathing normally, nose often blocked. My own health affected and not good, the whole family become so unhappy, emotionally unstable, with bad tempers.

Through Ms. Yong, Tucheng centres' volunteer 's recommendation, because not knowing much about Longevityology, decided I would join first, just in time for the course starting. During the lessons, through the teachers' explanation, having seen some of the learners' personal experience, this made me want to understand more. Had the chakras opened in the primary course, no feelings experienced; but on the first day of intermediate course, after chakras opened, felt the palm of both hands getting hotter and hotter, and then tried to practice meditation as taught by the teachers, the whole body felt so relaxed and comfortable.

After the primary course completed, brought my husband and son to the Tucheng advance centre for adjustments, requested the master of the centre for help. Did not know what to do in the beginning, let the master and the volunteers guiding me with the adjustments. A week passed my husband whose face was rather pale and with headaches, colour of his face beginning to look pinkish, his well-being, morale shows he is happier. My son's nasal allergy was improved, but the biggest achievement was he had grown taller with daily adjustments from the centre master and Mr. Lin. The centre master said: your son has grown taller! In addition, Mr. Lin said: now applying adjustments to your son, my hands ache because of hanging. Everyday I look at him and did not notice, went home and measured him; he actually has grown 8 cm, his body and shoulder broader and stronger. He just starting the secondary school of growing age, his height is approximately 1.62 meter. I was relieved, not to worry he is not growing, he should
