

her hand into teacher Lin's hand. Not only I hope that one day she would learn this self-help and help people's this specific kung fu, even wish that she would learn from teacher Lin and teacher Wei of their selflessness,, their great loving spirits, holding on this opportunity, getting rid of pains for people. Just as teacher Wei says, the only way is to change self into a light bulb, the heaven would be non-stopping giving you energy.

I have some words for teacher Lin:

Dear teacher Lin,

After the lessons, whenever I extend my hands to help people with adjustments, very clearly and I understood what you have given us! You not only have passed on to us this self-help and help people this specific kung fu. It also taught us with this benevolent and great love naturally able to guide the universal energy, and through this non-stopping observing and giving, able to open up systematic, and only with the open heart, and able to own all the treasures from heaven and earth.

For 15 years, yourself and teacher Wei have given Taiwan this piece of land, and the whole world this great love, not only I have seen, also felt deeply, you made me feel so moved emotionally. Just as you said: for this wonderful opportunity, I surely would with all my heart, and make it eternal. With my gratitude to your teaching, also willing to do my utmost best, to spread the kind acts and kind thoughts of Longevityology. Glad to hear that Longevityology, place of origin in Taiwan would be publishing the first book soon, I, the learner, can not be happier, wishing an opportunity to have a corner of your valuable book and share with all the learners around the world my feelings, the heart felt emotions, and gratefulness are not comparable.

In here! Wishing you both for the past 15 years quietly and kindly giving to all, and offer my upper most respect, and to all the volunteers of Longevityology in this world whom without complaints or regrets guarding this piece of land, which deserved a big applaud. Lastly, wishing Longevityology's light brightened the world and you great love fill very corner of the space.

A sincere deeply bows to you both!
